Media Attendance PROUD EXPERIENCES 2018

PROUD Experiences is a new launch event for the LGBTQ+ community, organised by Reed Travel Exhibitions.

PROUD Experiences is a by invitation-only event and governed with a strict policy in relation to the members of the media who are accredited to attend. Within the registration application, all media are asked to outline their current interest in this sector. We also reserve the right to reject media registration requests.

Media accreditation is open only to senior editors and journalists within the following categories:-

- Travel Consumer Press
- Consumer Press with LGBTQ+ specific travel sections
- Travel Trade Media
- Freelance LGBTQ+ travel Writers
- LGBTQ+ Travel Bloggers
- Leading newspapers with influential travel sections or supplements
- Radio stations – news programming and/or LGBTQ+ related programs
- TV stations and production companies interested in the content of PROUD Experiences and its attending audience

N.B. Meeting the minimum criteria does not guarantee acceptance.

Accreditation is not permitted to:

- Publishers and members of publishing companies
- Sales staff
- Advertising and Marketing staff
- PR agencies and media companies
- Photographers

Completion of an online or other application form to attend PROUD as Media does not guarantee entry to the event. Both successful and unsuccessful applicants will be notified by the PR team - Spot1ght Communications.

Media registration will close approximately one week before the event. All media are required to be pre-qualified and it is not possible to register onsite unless we advise otherwise. PROUD reserves the right to refuse admission to all those who are not registered in advance of the show.
